11. ORGANIZER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

- InterMet (organizer of EXPOCOBRE 2023) shall not be liable for non-compliance due to situations of fortuitous event or force majeure, regulated in article 1315° of the Civil Code. For these purposes, fortuitous event or force majeure is understood as that non-imputable cause consisting of an extraordinary, unforeseeable and irresistible event, which prevents the execution of its obligations in relation to the organization and development of the First World Copper Conference - EXPOCOBRE 2023, which determines its partial, late or defective fulfillment.
- Such events include fires, earthquakes, tsunamis, landslides, avalanches, pandemics, floods, torrential rains, storms, explosions, military conflicts or external or internal wars, civil commotions, blockades, acts of terrorism and sabotage, uncontrollable delays in transportation, strikes and stoppages, as well as any other similar or different cause, it being understood that this list is merely enunciative and not exhaustive, so that all events beyond the reasonable control of InterMet and which could not have been foreseen or which, having been foreseen, could not have been avoided, and for the loss or damage caused to equipment, tools and material, are included.
- If due to acts of God or force majeure the event of the I World Copper Conference - EXPOCOBRE 2023 is cancelled, InterMet will not refund to the participant the amounts paid.

12. POSTPONEMENT OF THE EVENT

- InterMet reserves the right to unilaterally modify the dates or location of the Event, in which case the participant will not be entitled to any type of compensation for such concept.

13. ACCESS CONTROL

- The credential will be confiscated and entry to the event venue will be prohibited if an invalid badge is identified and/or it does not correspond to the participant.
- All participants must have paid their registration fee before entering the event venue, otherwise access will be denied.
- All participants must identify themselves with their badge.
